Course Evaluations (Spring 2009) – Medical Malpractice – Alex Stein

One of the best classes I took at Cardozo. Professor Stein is excellent. His accent makes it a little hard to understand everything he says, but this should not dissuade you from taking the class. He is awesome!!!

Wish it was more practical.

great course - I appreciate Cardozo offering a variety of subjects. It met my expectations and Stein has an excellent command of the material.

Excellent professor. Very interesting material. Class is well organized. Assignments are very manageable.

Professor Stein seems to be very expert in his field. The materials he assigned were interesting and informative. Sometimes there was an excessive number of cases to prepare. The class was stimulating - the Professor's presentation of the material was interesting and - for the most part - clear; and the discussions were engaging. The Professor encouraged participation and created an atmosphere where students felt comfortable to ask questions and participate.

Professor presents everything in a very clear and organized manner. Great explanations, and does a great job at distinguishing between the approach of different jurisdictions. One of the best professors in Cardozo!!!!
